

The next generation, among the farm's fig trees.

Organic figs and artisanal delicacies, since 1770

Quinta da Fornalha is a family farm in Castro Marim, in the Algarve. It has been in the same family since 1770, has grown figs since 1890 and has been organic since 1994. Since 2008 Rosa Dias has run the farm through her own company, with regenerative practices across 35 hectares.
